Spring's Handleap in Excellent Time Steeplechase a Cinch for Opuntia -Torchello Trims Agile-Three Favorites Finish First at Brighton Beach. The Brighton track was heavy in spots yesterday and the scratches were numerous. ret three favorites got home in front. The feature event was the Nautilus Stakes for three-year-olds and upward, at a mile and a Bulleting, in which there were only five starters, Bobadil. Unmasked, Dainty and Gay Boy Sheriff Bell, backing him down to 4 to 5, but he ran a very bad race and came home third, all out. Possession, with Hildebrand up, was hammered down to 18 to 5, and went to the front at the getaway, Sweet Alice racing with her clear up the backstretch. At the three-quarter pole Travers moved up with E. R. Thomas's Duke of Kendal, who went back to 9 to 2, and quickly took the lead as he swept around the turn into the run home Hildebrand put Possession under a fierce drive, but she could not catch the Thomas horse, who won in a mild drive by a length and a half in 1:55 2-5. Possession had eight lengths over Sheriff Bell. Waterboy was scratched from the overnight handicap at a mile and a quarter be-cause of the going. The form players were then in a quandary as to the winner. Lord Badge opened favorite at 8 to 5, but receded to twos and Brigand went back half a point to 5 to 2, the smart money finally backing Spring down from 2 to 1 to 17 to 10. The race was simply a procession from start to finish. Spring went to the front fighting for his head, and had a lead of ten lengths coming into the stretch. Martin finally eased him to a walk, the Atheling colt winning by five lengths in the excellent time of 2:07 3-5. Lord Badge, who was always second, had six lengths over Brigand, who had to be driven to take third money from Illyra by a length.

Torchello, 9 to 5, took the third race, two-year-olds, at six furlongs in a drive by three parts of a length from Agile, 2 to 1. Tramotor, 18 to 5, led to the end of the turn, when Hildebrand failed to keep him from swinging wide and thereby lost much ground. finishing two lengths behind Agile. The time finishing two lengths behind Agile. The time was 1:16.

mula, 13 to 5 favorite, and Monster, 4 to 1 third choice, left the others early in the contest and ran close together to the far turn, where Flammula drew away and galloped home by five lengths to the good in 1:49 2-5. Monster was four lengths before Seymour, 20 to 1, who lasted long enough to take third money from Elsie L., 12 to 1, by a nose. dolph, who was played down to 18 to 5, was a

The Canadian jumper Opuntia, 3 to 1. in the steeplechase and walked home, thirty lengths in front of Conover, the 8 to 5 favor-ite. Out of ten starters four came to grief, Terrible Terry, third in favor, falling at the last jump. The time was 4:31.

Nightmare and Golden Sunrise the choices the last event, for maiden two-year-olds, ive and a half furlongs, were unable to get the money, the former stopping after she had led for half a mile. A. L. Aste's tubric, a 20 to 1 shot, who was the runner up, rushed home victorious in a drive by a length. with W. L. Oliver's Montibello, another 20 to 1 shot, in the place. Three lengths back came Goldfleur, 5 to 1, who was a head in front of Nightmare. The race was run in 1:09 2-5. A FIRST RACE.

TO-DAY'S CARD FOR BRIGHTON. | GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK. unshine Stakes, for Two-Year-Olds,

There should be plenty of good sport at Brighton Beach to-day, judging from the card provided by Secretary John Boden, Jr. For the Sunshine Stakes, for two-yearolds, E. R. Thomas's St. Bellane must pick up 124 pounds and meet, among others, Sydney Paget's Woodsaw, a fast colt: Jack McGinnis's Buttling and Austin Allen, Martha Gorman and Pasadena. Mattie Corbett has named Hurst Park to go in the fourth and last races, probably in the latter, where he will take up 126 pounds, with The Cricket, Graceful and Dinah Shad as the possible contenders. In the fourth event, a handleap at a mile and an eighth, Corbett also has Dalesman, with 111 pounds, but he will probably find Spring. ord Badge, Monster and Palmbearer hard to dispose of in their present form. There are some tall sprinters in the first race, at six furlongs, notably Gay Boy, with 130 pounds, Stalwart, Ascension, James V., Rochampton, Ancestor, Honiton, Monster and Major Pel-ham. Glen Echo, Tarpon, Jerusha and Perry McAdow may be heard from in the second race, for two-year-olds, while in the fifth, at a mile and a sixteenth, Mahon, Ailsa, Chattah, Allan and Prince Salm Salm figure well. Beats the Cavahoe in Race From Dover to Ostend. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, July 18.—The American yacht Ingomar and the German yacht Navahoe, Ingonar and the German yacht Navahoe, which were damaged in collision last Friday, effected repairs in time to take part to-day in the race from Dover to Ostend, a distance of seventy miles. The other competitors were the Therese and Valdora.

There was a stiff northeast wind blowing, which kicked up a rough sea. The Ingonar best the Navahoe by 11 minutes 11 seconds, easily saving the time she had to allow the other boats.

JOHN J. RYAN'S COUP WITH MONSTER FAILS.

Canadians Cash on Opuntia—Dubois Backs Trochello for $5,000—Big Money Lost on Sheriff Bell—Hyland to Train for Gebhard-Hildebrand is Suspended.

Before John J. Ryan actually retires from the turf it will not be surprising if he puts several crimps in the bookmakers' bank rolls just to let them know that he is still up to snuff. Ryan started his three-year-old Monster, by Plaudit - B. and S., bred by John Madden, in the first race yesterday. The gelding was ridden by Ashworth, a promisng apprentice, and Ryan bet $4,000 at 4 to 1 and $4,000 a place at 8 to 5. Had it not been for Flammula, who carried a load of clubhouse money and who won gallooing, Ryan would have been able to give the chalkers a merry laugh, but as it was he had the satisfaction of winning $2,400 on the race, enough to hire barouches with colored coachmen for some time to come.

The Canadians unbelted on Opuntia in the steeplechase. The Parisian gelding is one of the best jumpers in the Dominion and while the local players had heard of his prowess they did not know how good he really was, so went to Conover with confidence. Swallwell, an expert Canadian jockey, rode Opuntia with marked skill, and when the gelding came home on the bit the yells of those who had a piece of the good thing were deaf-

Billy Dubois, the clubhouse bookmaker, who now owns racehorses running in the name of the Patchogue Stable, went up and down the line on the St. Gatien gelding. Torchello, in the third race. He got down $5,000 at 2 to 1 and 9 to 5. Bob Tucker thought S. S. Brown's Agile would surely beat Tor-chello, and not only bet $1,500 on the Sir Dixon colt, but also induced the Drake-Gates combination to follow suit, a big commission going on at the last moment, when the odds were 2 to 1. Eddie Burke took E. E. Smathers's King Cole, ridden this time by Redfern, but the Hamburg colt was anchored

A pile of money was bet on the result of the Nautilus Stakes. The clubhouse commissioners loaded the books with Sheriff Bell money, L. Hayman betting at least $5,000, som for himself and the rest presumably for Senator McCarren. Alexander Shields bet on Duke of Kendal a few moments before the horses reached the post, getting 9 to 2 for his money and that of his partner, E. R. Thomas. Dave Johnson was reported to have been one of those who plunged on Possession, Frank Lauterman also getting aboard of this one. Spring, Lord Badge and Brigand were all heavily backed in the handicap. A. B. Hud-son, Drake, Gates, Wheelock and others played Spring. Joe Yeager had a bet on Brigand. Dave Gideon backed Golden Sunrise in the last race, while Yeager's money went on Nightmare. A. L. Aste, the "Boot-black King," told several inquisitive persons that Rubric did not have a chance, but when Rubric won at 20 to 1 Aste had a smile a yard wide. Henry Schulz tried to put Red Rey-nard over, backed down to fives, but the Fatherless colt could not untrack himself. Other good things that failed during the day were Baikal, Queen Belle, Goldfleur and Flying Redskin.

Mars Cassidy had his troubles at the post in the last race. It is a long time since a greener lot of two-year-olds faced the There were twelve of them in all and a majority kept whirling and plunging. exhausted. Hildebrand was so anxious to get away with the favorite, Nightmare, that he ran through the barrier several times. As a consequence Starter Cassidy set him down for three days, much to the boy's chagrin. Cormack, Kunz and Cochran also received similar penalties.

John J. Hyland, for many years trainer of August Belmont's horses, has signed a contract to train for Fred Gebhard and will take charge of the latter's stable to-day. Hyland has not had a string of racers in his charge since Mr. Belmont sold most of his horses last fall. What few horses have raced in the colors of the Jockey Club chairman this year have been prepared for their engagements by John Whalen. Mr. Gebhard's horses have been trained hitherto by C. F. Hill, while Pulsus, recently purchased from John E. Madden, has remained in the latter's care. Hyland was warmly congratulated on his new engagement when it became known, all of his many friends

Hurst Park, who has been laid up with a

LITTLE WIND FOR YACHTS. Thirty-four Start in Larchmon
—Weetamoe Beats Neela. ont Begatta

Thirty-four yachts started in the races at Larchmont yesterday and they had a long day of it. The wind, which came in from the northwest shortly before noon, died out in the afternoon and the boats made slow progress home, many of them finishing late.

It was the second day of the race week and the contests were chiefly for the series prizes, although some special races had been arranged. The Weetamoe and Neola met again in the sixty-foot class and sailed once around a fifteen-mile triangle, going to a mark in Hempstead Harbor first, then to a mark to the east and then home. This made it a reach on the first leg, a broad reach on the second and a beat home. The Weetamoe led across the line. H. F. Lippitt sailed this boat and the Neola was handled by the Hanan brothers. On the second leg of the course the Neol sed the Weetamoe and at the second mark she led by thirty seconds. Then it was nip and tuck between the two all the way home.

she led by thirty seconds. Then it was nip and tuck between the two all the way home. When near the finish the Weetamoe made a bluff at tacking and the Neola went about at once. This tack cost the Neola the race, as the Weetamoe was able to take the lead and she won by 1 minute 13 seconds.

In the 36-foot class the Anoatok sailed, by Hazen Morse, beat the Spasm and Mimosa 11. These boats sailed twenty-two miles, going twice around a triangle. The Anoatok got a good lead soon after the start, the other two having a luffing match. At the end of the first round the Anoatok led by 3 minutes and the Spasm was 1 minute 22 seconds ahead of the Mimosa 111. There was no change in this order on the second round and the Anoatok increased her lead considerably, winning from the Spasm by 28 minutes 33 seconds.

The Alert won in the 30-foot class. On the first round the Alert gained 6 minutes 24 seconds, but on the second round the Chewink picked up some and was finally beaten by 4 minutes 7 seconds.

There were seven starters in the raceabout class. These boats sailed eleven miles. The Kid led at the end of the first round, with the Hobo second. Tartan third and Rascal fourth. On the second round the Rascal worked into first place through judicious handling and she won the race, beating the Kid by 3 minutes 31 seconds. The Hobo was third. In the Larchmont 21-footer class, the Houri was the winner. W. B. Duncan, Jr.'s Una was again a winner in the 25-foot class. Wa was again a winner in the 25-foot class. Thirty-seven miles of the Island to-day. Thirty-seven miles of the forty-three mile course was sailed in a dense fog that never once lifted, nearly all of the yachts being unable to see one another from the time the fog shut in. In spite of this, sixteen out of the eighteen starters crossed the finish line, and only one yacht, the Katonah, had not been accounted for when the committee left the finish line. The reason for her non-appearance was undoubtedly dead calm and a head tide.

The finishes were remarkably close, the larger yachts being very close to each other at the end of the race. The big schooner Corona led across the finish line. The Agatha was the winner in the smaller schooner class. The Athene finished far ahead of the Wasp in the larger sloop division and won by over an hour on corrected time.

Charles Lane Poor's Mira was the first yacht across the finish line in the smaller sloop division, but she lost on corrected time to the Heron. These two boats sailed a very close race. The summary:

DETROIT, 8: NEW YORK (A. L.), 4. The New York Americans lost a game to Detroit yesterday that they looked to have won and stowed safely away. Hughes was pitching so effectively when the New Yorks had a lead of three runs that a Detroit victory looked very improbable. But in the seventh inning things took a turn for the bad. First came a hit, then a base on balls, then another hit, then a fumble by Beville, whose first base play was a poor excuse for the real thing; then base on balls which forced in a run, then a third hit.

Griffith yanked Hughes out of the box after three hits and four runs had been made in the seventh inning. Hughes did not like being shelved at all and made no effort to conceal his feelings. He slammed the ball down on the ground and said things to the manager. Powell went in to pitch, and an outfield fly ushered in the fifth run of the inning. The Detroits made two runs and two hits in the ninth inning, largely through the very poor work of Dougherty in gauging a couple of base hits. Dougherty messed things up to the limit in this inning.

New York's game had its good individual points, but the machinery of team work creaked and did not work smoothly. Fullz, Anderson and Kleinow continued their first class work. The Detroit game had more snap and intelligence to it and, though luck was with them, the Detroits deserved their plate.

A very rare play was made by Kleinow in the third inning. With one out and three on bases Carr made his third lunge at the ball. The ball bounded up off Kleinow's gloved hand, and Stovall, who was on third, started for the plate thinking the ball would get away from Kleinow. But the red-headed backstop caught it as it was coming down, so Carr was out on strikes. Then Kleinow can Stovall down. Adouble play by a catcher so Carr was out on strikes. Then Kleinov ran Stovall down. A double play by a catche unassisted is something not seen once in

NEW YORK (N. L.), 4; PITTSBURG, 1. PITTSBURG, July 18.—Taylor was too much for Pittsburg to-day and the second game of the series went to New York. The visitors managed to get in several hits when men were on bases, and this counted. There was some good fast playing on both sides, but the best play of the game was engineered by Browne of New York, in the first inning when he caught Leach off second base. Leac was on second when Kruger hit to right Browne got the ball on the fly and like a sho sent it to second, expecting Leach to make a bluff toward third, and this is just a bluff toward third, and this is just what Leach did, expecting to draw the throw to third. Leach got about ten feet from second and turned to come back when he ran into the ball and was out. This play brought the stand to its feet and Browne was cheered to the echo.

Fast work on bases scored two for the visitors in the seventh. With two out Bowerman made what should only have been a single, but he took advantage of the slowness of Kruger and made two bases. He came in on Taylor's single, the silent man taking second on the play. Dahlen singled to deep short, but Wagner tried for him at first, and on the throw Taylor came over by fast footwork. In the sixth two singles and Gilbert's neat triple scored Mertes and Dahlen.

Pittsburg saved herself from a whitewash in the eighth aided by a bad throw on the part of Dahlen. Leach hit to short and took second on the bad throw. Beaumont's out sent him to third and he scored on Kruger's out. Leach to-day supplanted Wagner as acting captain of the thrice champions. The score:

CINCINNATI, July 18.—Brooklyn lost again to-day after making a fast finish which nearly won the game for them. The Reds bunched their hits off Jones in the third and fifth, while Brooklyn did little with Walker till the eighth, when he grew wild and was hit for two singles. Kellum relieved him after two were out. Odwell scored the winning run in the eighth on his double, an out and Bergen's muff of Babb's assist, which would have caught him at the plate. Strang and Gessler made singles in the ninth, and these, with an error, nearly tied the score. Dillon ended the game by grounding out with Gessler on third. The score: CINCINNATI.

The Asbury Park was in the lead when the Arrow started after her, and before she reached Arrow started after her, and before she reached the upper bay the Arrow had taken a commanding lead. Last year the Asbury Park and the Arrow had a race down the bay and the Arrow on that occasion made the trip from Rector street to Atlantic Highlands in 56 minutes. The Arrow is 130 feet long. In a trial over a mile course on the Hudson River she made a record of 1 minute 18 4-5 seconds.
